A Christmas present to every boy and girl that calls at our store between 9 and 10 a. m. Christmas Day.

EVERYBODY is hurrying and hustling; everybody has a cherry good-day for everyone else; everybody wears a mysterious air that hints of secrets galore. This is the Christmas store. This is where all the taxing problems may be solved, where every penny will do its work surprisingly well, and every dollar will buy two dollars worth of satisfaction—one for the giver, the other, recipient. We are going to fill this page with talk about Christmas gifts and show how everything in the store will make a suitable and pleasant gift for somebody. Select your presents now. We will put them away and deliver them on Christmas Eve.
